1 Introduction

The project 11065 DYNOCA officially started on 1 January 2000. The Kick-Off Meeting was held on 10/11 February 2000.

During the second two months of the project besides WP 6 (Project Management), WP1 (Requirements Analysis) and WP2 (Reference Model and Pilot Scenario Definition) were active.

2 Technical Achievements in Active WPs

2.1 WP1 Requirements Analysis

WP 1 started with the Kick-Off Meeting on 10/11 February 2000.

A first analysis of the end-user needs at BIG and FORDESI has been carried out. Partners, customers, etc. are involved in user requirements capture.

In detail, the following activities have been performed within this WP:

- Definition of the final end user requirements capture questionnaire and interview guideline
- Performing interviews for user requirements capture
- Analysis of own requirement at FORDESI and BIG
- Write up interview reports

2.2 WP2 Reference Model and Pilot Scenario

WP 2 started officially in April 2000. Due to the short delay in the project, not much progress has been achieved in this work package.

In detail, the following activities have been performed within this WP:

- Planning of methods and norms to write down the reference models

- Initial discussion of DYNOCA pilot scenario

2.3 WP6 Project Management

The WP6 Project Management is active during complete project period.

In detail, the following activities have been performed within this WP:

- Preparation and execution of second project meeting in Lisbon
- Provision of documents
- Execution of controlling and reporting procedures
- Controlling and reporting

3 Issues

N/A

4 Major Problems

The start of the project is delayed by one month due to late arrival of the project contract. The project officer has been informed.

The project tries to catch-up this small delay during the first year, but this can also result in applying for a project extension for approximately one month.

5 Meetings

The following shows all meetings which have been held during the report period:

Meetings During the last Two Months
